Government of Madras,
Madras.6. -

Sir,

Sub: MANGESH RAO (Sri.) K- retired Compounderre-employment - sanction sought
Ref: Govt.orders Ms.No. 3109 P.H., dated 2-9-49.

Sri.K.Mangesh Rao, the retired L.F.Compounder who retired from service on 22-8-1947 was re-employed in service for the third time as per orders of Government quoted above for a period of one year from 22-8-1949 to 21-8-1950.

2. There are four permanent vacancies of Compounders and out of which two vacancies are filled by the retired Compounders. Qualified Compounders are not available for appointment though applications were invited recently by advertisement in local Newspapers in the District.

3. The Medical officer, L.F.Hospital Moolky under whom the Compounder is serving now states that he (the Compounder) is quite able and fit to discharge his work satisfactorily if re-employed from 22-8-1950.

4. I therefore request that Government may be pleased to accord sanction for the re-employment of Sri.K. Mangesh Rao for one year from 22-8-1950 or until such time as qualified candidates become available for appointment whichever is earlier and to allow him the pay he was drawing at the time of his retirement on 21-8-1947.
